

March 24, 2017

Sanford commerce center sold for $10.4M

[From the Orlando Business Journal:

<https://www.bizjournals.com/orlando/news/2017/03/24/7-things-to-know-today-and-holy-sugar-rush-batman.html>]

Cushman & Wakefield negotiated the sale of the 117,600-square-foot North Park Commerce Center in Sanford for $10.4 million to Cabot Properties of Boston. North Park Commerce Center comprises two Class A, small bay, rear-load, dock-high distribution buildings developed in 2009. Cushman's Mike Davis, Michael Lerner and Rick Brugge represented Atlanta-based McDonald Development Co. in the sale.